Defendant has Met Conditions of Release: Yes

This officer has not received information to cause her to believe the defendant poses a risk of nonappearance or a danger to another person or the community.

Upon conviction, the defendant may be subject to the requirement of 18 USC § 3143(a)(1) that he be detained unless the judicial officer finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person is not likely to flee or pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the community if released under 18 USC § 3142(b) or (c). Therefore, this officer does not make a recommendation as to issue of future detention.
